

Interdisciplinary Community-based Care: Successful Integration of Behavioral and Physical Health

PROJECT LAUNCH

2012 SPRING TRAINING INSTITUTE

May 17, 2012

Objectives

Learn about:

- About a framework and strategies to integrate behavioral health into primary care
- How to anticipate, identify and address barriers that can impede integration
- How to adapt strategies to capitalize on opportunities to meet local needs

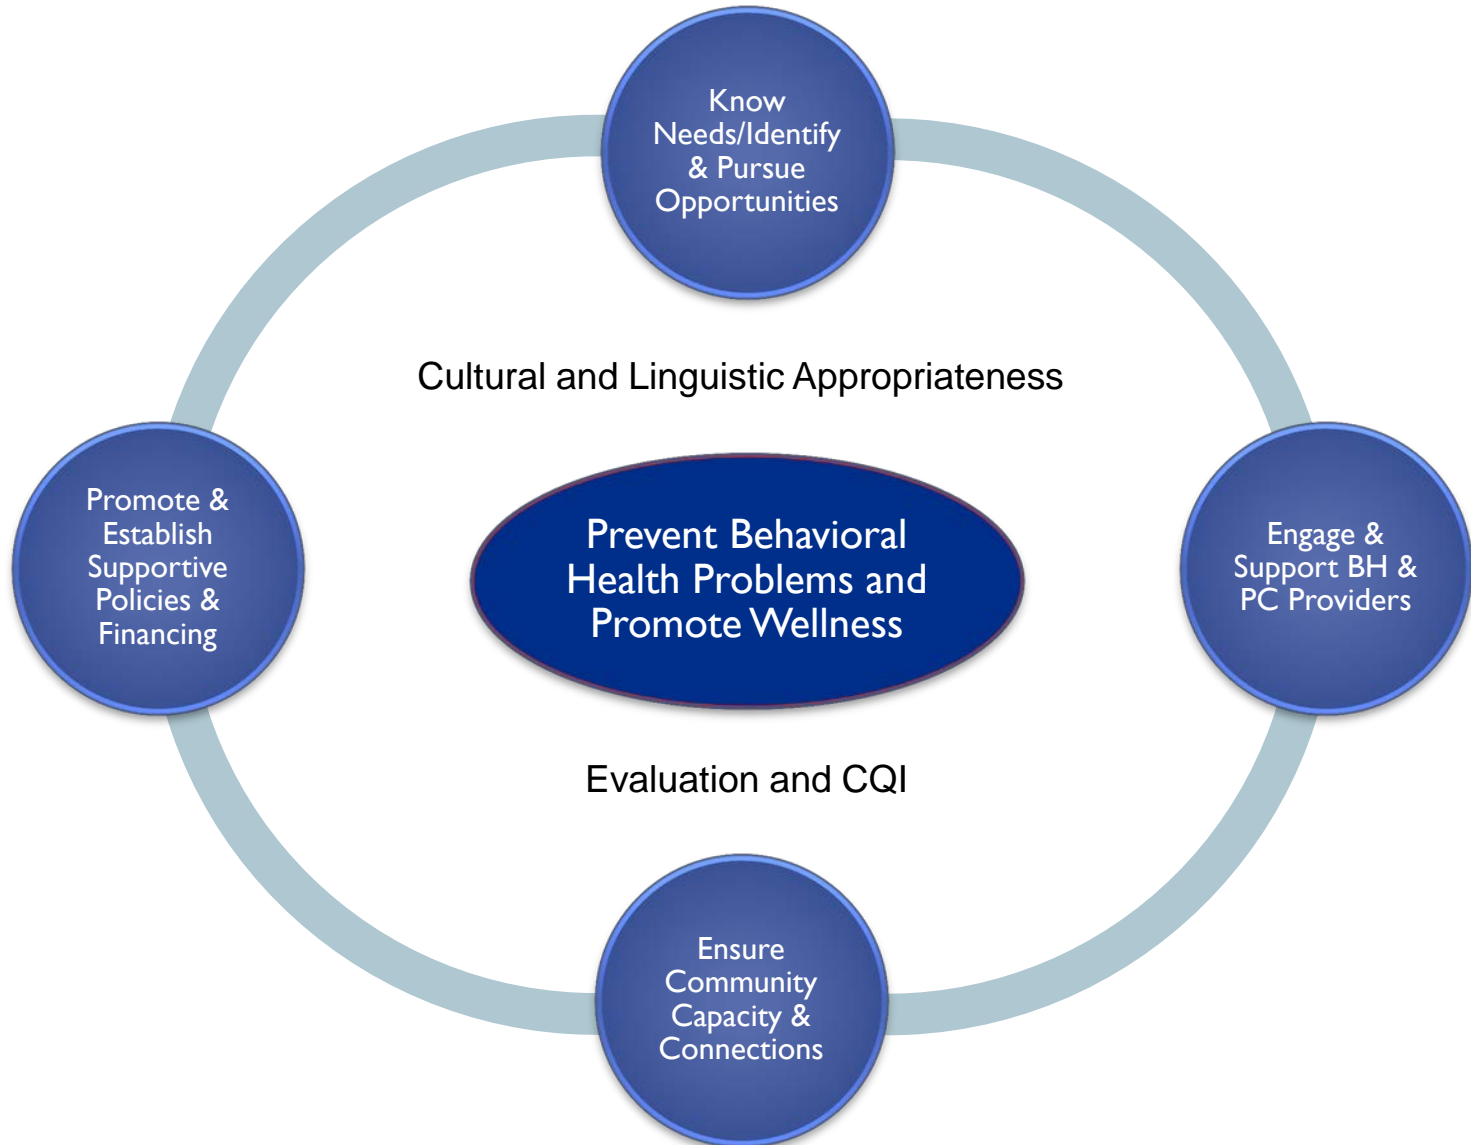

Agenda

- Welcome
- Warm-up Exercise

- Understanding the Integration of Behavioral Health into Primary Care Landscape (Larry Wissow)
- Engaging and Working with Behavioral Health + Primary Care Providers (Greg Hagan)
 - Reflection and Discussion Activity

- Community Connections (Joanna Bogin)
 - Reflection and Discussion Activity
- Working with Private Payers (Barry Zallen)
 - Reflection and Discussion Activity

Integration of Behavioral Health into Primary Care Model

Contact Information

Albert K. Yee, MD, MPH

Email: ayee@edc.org

Warm-Up Exercise

1. Planning phase, reaching out to and engaging primary care practices
2. Working with primary care practices, primarily focusing on screening and referral for BH issues
3. Establishing a co-location and/or other integrative model (network, virtual)
4. Sustaining and/or spreading an established integrated model, including policy change

Questions?