

National Center
for Mental Health
Promotion and
Youth Violence
Prevention

Creating an Efficient System for Appropriately Referring Students to Programs and Services

Trudy Townsend, PD Wasco, Oregon

Gary Houseman, PD Muskegon, Michigan

Cynthia Wright, TAS

Jennifer Kitson, TAS

Project Directors Consortia

Baltimore, Maryland

March 18, 2011

Welcome!

- Introductions
- Overview and Objectives
- Agenda

Presenters

- Trudy Townsend, Project Director Wasco, OR
- Gary Houseman, Project Director Muskegon, MI
- Cynthia Wright, Technical Assistance Specialist
- Jennifer Kitson, Technical Assistance Specialist

Overview and Objectives

This session will:

- Address the challenges with developing a referral system that connects students with appropriate services
- Discuss referral, tracking, and monitoring of referring students to SS/HS programs and services
- Two sites will share experiences in building and implementing a referral system

Overview and Objectives

Learning Objectives:

- Recognize the importance of a coordinated referral system
- Understand the importance of training staff and tracking and monitoring the referral system
- Observe the use of technology in a referral system

Agenda

- Wasco County Student Assistance Program, Wasco, Oregon
- Family Resource Program, Muskegon, Michigan
- Group Discussion
- Top 3 take aways from this session
- Closing

National Center
for Mental Health
Promotion and
Youth Violence
Prevention

www.promoteprevent.org