

SAVE THE DATE

Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration presents

GEORGETOWN LEADERSHIP PROGRAM

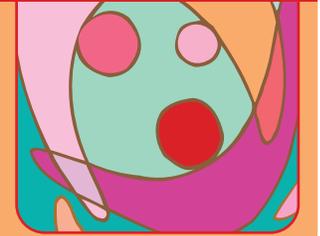

MEET THE CHALLENGE OF CHANGE

GEORGETOWN UNIVERSITY'S

LEADERSHIP ACADEMY

to Address Disparities in Mental Health Care

AUGUST 22-25, 2011
SANTA FE, NEW MEXICO

Designed for individuals who are actively engaged in mental health care policy, practice, research, and advocacy throughout the life cycle and who are invested in developing their leadership role to address disparities in mental health care.

Georgetown University, in collaboration with the Center for Mental Health Services (CMHS) of the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA), and AFYA, Inc. is convening a "Leadership Academy to Address Disparities in Mental Health Care," August 22–25, 2011 in Santa Fe, New Mexico. The Academy will begin at 3:30 pm on Monday, August 22, 2011 and end on Thursday, August 25 at 9:30 pm.

GOALS

Upon completion of the Georgetown Leadership Academy on Addressing Disparities in Mental Health Care, you will:

- gain knowledge and skills to serve as agents of change;
- recognize your capacity to lead regardless of your designated position within your organization/setting;
- make a commitment to your leadership role; and
- develop strategies to sustain yourself as a leader in chaotic, difficult, and challenging environments.

DESCRIPTION

The Leadership Academy is an intensive course of study comprised of 3 months of preparatory activities and a four-day residential learning experience. Participants will be guided through a variety of learning opportunities that engage multiple learning styles. These opportunities include: webinars, peer group discussions, lectures, writing assignments, coaching, experiential exercises, and leadership assessments.

In addition to an enriching learning experience, once you complete the program you will be enrolled in the Leadership Academy Alumni Network, allowing you to continue your learning and expand your networking opportunities.

We encourage multiple applications from your organization/setting. Selection of applicants however will be made on an individualized basis.

LIMITED TO 50 PARTICIPANTS

REGISTRATION FEE: $450.00* includes all materials; daily breakfast, lunch and breaks; an opening dinner reception and a closing graduation banquet.

The Leadership Academy recognizes the important role of consumer and family voice as demonstrated by their inclusion in all aspects of the Academy. As such, a limited number of Registration Scholarships are available for families and consumers. See website for more detailed information.*

SPECIAL ROOM RATE AT THE HOTEL SANTA FE: $109.00 plus tax per night

For more information, please contact Ellen B. Kagen at 202-687-5087 (kageneb@georgetown.edu), Vivian Jackson at 202-687-5450 (vhj@georgetown.edu), Vernice Thompson at 202-687-8837 (thompsonv@georgetown.edu) or visit our website at <http://gucchdtcenter.georgetown.edu/Activities/LeadershipAcademy>

Georgetown University reserves the right to modify or cancel any or all activities associated with this training due to unforeseen circumstances.

LEADERSHIP ACADEMY PARTNERS

